

I endorse limiting the number of media broadcast stations/entities that a group can own in a given area. Diversity is the most important element in a democracy's voice and deep pockets should not circumvent it. Too many controls on an area's media could give a group an unfair advantage and sway in the kind of information made available. I urge the commission to ensure the protection of our freedom of speech.